

Police Shower School Yard With Tear Gas

13 Persons Hurt
In Fifth Night of Milwaukee Protest

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Police, caught in a barrage of bottles and bricks minutes after cracking down on a forbidden civil rights march Friday night, rushed a Roman Catholic school yard and showered it with tear gas.

The police sweep that sent tear gas filtering into the buildings of St. Boniface parish climaxed a night of racial tension that resulted in 13 injuries and 14 arrests. A spectator collapsed and died of natural causes, authorities said.

Among those arrested was the Rev. James E. Groppi, a white assistant pastor at St. Boniface, a parish in the heart of the Inner Core, where most of Milwaukee's 86,000 Negroes live.

Led Attempt
Father Groppi, who led the attempted march from St. Boniface, is adviser to the Milwaukee Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

It was the second straight night in which the priest was arrested and the third night in which police have broken up a Youth Council demonstration that defied a ban by Mayor Henry Maier.

The ban on nighttime demonstrations, originally in effect for 30 days, was declared Wednesday after two nights of violence that accompanied Youth Council marches into masses of heckling whites on the predominantly Polish South Side. The mayor decided Friday to lift the ban beginning at 9 a. m. today.

Climax Expected
The tension is expected to reach a climax with a rally today that Father Groppi said may attract the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Negro comedian Dick Gregory; Floyd McKissick, head of the Congress of Racial Equality; and H. Rap Brown, head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. No decision has been made as to where they would march but trouble is expected if they decided to return to South Side.

The Smell of Tear Gas Only Amplifies the Crowd's Roar

MILWAUKEE (AP) — "We made our point," the Rev. James E. Groppi, released from jail for the second time in two nights, told his followers early today. "We made it loud and clear tonight."

About 200 persons, most of them young Negroes, gathered around the priest, one of the first arrested after police crashed into a demonstration here Friday night in defiance of a ban proclaimed by the city's mayor.

"That tear gas did us a lot of good," the priest said. "When people suffer together, it unites them together."

The smell of tear gas, fired by police at a group of young Negroes gathered in the school yard of St. Boniface Roman Catholic parish, was still noticeable as the priest spoke.

The gathering was in the basement of the church. The church, the rectory and the convent had all been affected by the gas. It was so heavy in the convent that most of the nuns stayed outside on the porch.

Those that remained in the convent daubed at their eyes with cold cloths.

"The fire department said they would send something around to get rid of it," a nun said. The young people had waited for the priest in hope he would lead them out to another confrontation with police, who still waited in vans around the corner from the church.

It was already past midnight.

Outside, a Negro woman told of a conversation she had with a policeman after about 20 officers rushed the school yard.

"Why did you do that," I said to him," the woman, about 45 and motherly, related.

"You know what he said to me? He said 'Because those children were throwing bottles at us.'"

"Children," I said to him. "But you're a man. What do you mean going after children? You just wait till the mommas start coming out."

"You just wait until you see what happens the next time people around here go to the polls," a Negro man said. "It's not going to be the way it was. You wait and see."

A pretty woman in a yellow sweater said she had been in the schoolyard when the police advanced. "This cop pushed a tear gas gun against my head and said, 'Don't move.' Then another cop comes along and says, 'Move.' He wanted us all in the back of the yard so he could shoot his tear gas. I just stood there."

nades. Military authorities said 14 houses were destroyed by the guerrillas and two vehicles burned.

50 Abducted

In Thua Thien Province, about 50 miles to the north, South Vietnamese headquarters announced guerrillas entered a hamlet and abducted 50 people and took the voting cards of many more. This was in addition to the 237 persons which Saigon already had reported kidnapped. Authorities feared that many more people have been taken away and held as hostages—to insure their villages boycott the elections—but that these incidents have not been reported.

Kidnapings, Bombings Continue

More Terror on Election Eve

SAIGON (AP) — Communist guerrillas made election eve attacks throughout South Vietnam today, including an attempted terror raid into the province of Tam Ky where a terrorist carrying 20 pounds of TNT was shot down.

Most of the attacks were small but the over-all death toll mounted sharply.

U.S. sources said 190 civilians have been killed by terrorists in the past week, 426 have been wounded and 237 kidnapped.

Main Target

The regular war stayed quiet. Most of South Vietnam's servicemen and many Americans were assigned to protect the voters.

The attack on Tam Ky, capital of Quang Tin Province in the politically sensitive northern zone which has been the main target of pre-election terror, was thrown back with four South Vietnamese killed and six wounded. Simultaneously the Communists mortared a military dependents camp on the outskirts of the town, wounding two people there.

Tam Ky was the fifth provincial capital hit this week by Red raids.

The guerrillas attempted to get into the town about 2 a. m. and sporadic fighting broke out in the almost deserted streets as they were spotted.

Five guerrillas were slain and arms taken from them included the TNT and about a dozen grenades.

spite a Johnson administration plea for restraint.

President Johnson told a Washington news conference Friday that he regretted very much the companies' decision to raise prices but he did not indicate that he planned to do anything about it.

At almost the same time, Bethlehem Steel Corp., No. 2 producer, and Inland Steel Co., No. 4, announced they were raising prices on bars. Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., No. 5, and Armco Steel Corp. and Kaiser Steel Corp. followed suit shortly thereafter.

The price ball was started rolling by Republic Steel Corp., No. 3, on Wednesday. United States Steel Corp., No. 1, joined in the hike Thursday despite criticism of the raise by Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors.

"Steel is our single most important industrial material," Ackley said Thursday. "General stability of industrial prices is difficult to achieve if steel prices are rising."

Sun sets today at 7:30 p. m., rises tomorrow at 6:17 a. m. Moon rises tomorrow at 4:55 a. m. Prominent stars are Deneb and Sirius. Visible planets are Mars, Saturn and Jupiter.

Arabs to Resume Oil Flow to West

Hard Line
On Israelis

Target for Strike

UAW Selects Ford

KHARTOUM, Sudan (AP) — The Arab chiefs, bowing to a somewhat moderate policy, agreed Friday to start Arab oil flowing to the West again and use the revenues to build up strength, while refusing to consider negotiations with Israel.

Nothing said or done at the four-day Arab summit conference at this city on the Nile, however, threatened immediately to push Israeli troops off conquered soil in Egypt, Jordan and Syria.

An editorial in Israel's pro-government Jerusalem Post at 10 a. m. and at GM and Chrysler an hour later. Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, led his bargainers into the union's target, Ford, at 9 p. m. part of Israel. And the Israelis have pledged never to give up the captured Old City of Jerusalem.

Oust Foreigners

The summit conference unanimously decided that all foreign bases must be eliminated from Arab soil. Such bases are currently maintained by the United States, Britain and France.

A communique at the meeting's end said Iraq's plan for an embargo on oil to the West was rejected while Kuwait's plan to set up a development fund to be financed largely by oil-producing states was accepted.

Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser, who has joined the ranks of Arab doves for the time being, told the final session Friday that Arab military might must be rebuilt while a political solution with Israel is being sought. It was the second time during the summit that Nasser spoke of a political solution.

While direct negotiations with Israel were ruled out, the Arabs did not rule out indirect negotiations through the United Nations or the major powers Israel has called for direct negotiations.

Syrian Boycott

Under the Kuwait aid plan, Nasser is promised $256 million out of a $392 million fund. Jordan will get $122 million and Syria only $14 million. An extreme militant, Syria was the only one of 13 Arab nations to boycott the meeting. Late in the summit the semi-official Middle East News Agency reported that Syria might get no funds at all.

Kuwait will contribute $154 million to the fund, Saudi Arabia $140 million, Libya $84 million and other Arab states $14 million.

The hard line toward Israel was represented by Ahmed Shukairy, leader of the Palestine Liberation Organization. Shukairy urged the summit to back guerrilla warfare in Israeli-occupied territories, break diplomatic relations with the United States, Britain and West Germany and recognize East Germany. He boycotted the final session when he saw the moderate policy shaping up.

DETROIT (AP) — Bargaining for an automotive labor agreement went into the stretch today as the United Auto Workers union pushed towards a contract with the Ford Motor Co. that could be used as a pattern in the rest of the industry.

Less than five days remain before current three-year pacts covering some 650,000 workers at the Big Three—General Motors, Ford and Chrysler—expire at Wednesday midnight.

Negotiations at Ford resumed at 10 a. m. and at GM and Chrysler an hour later.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, led his bargainers into the union's target, Ford, at 9 p. m. part of Israel. And the Israelis have pledged never to give up the captured Old City of Jerusalem.

Reuther said, when he announced Ford as the target, that if no contract is reached by the deadline the UAW will strike all Ford plants.

Ford employs some 160,000 UAW members at its 45 manufacturing plants, 17 assembly plants and 39 parts depots in 27 states.

Among the top items on what the union calls its "longest and most ambitious list of demands" are a substantial pay boost, some form of guaranteed annual income and equal pay for women.

BONNERS FERRY, Idaho (AP) — Flames exploded across the north Idaho panhandle near Canada's border early today, racing to within four miles of Bonners Ferry.

Dayton Douglas, civil defense spokesman in the Boudry County community of 2,000, said crews were preparing to evacuate 10 farm families in rural areas.

He said shifting winds had slowed the forest blaze near "wide fields" northwest of town, giving firefighters a chance to fortify safety lines.

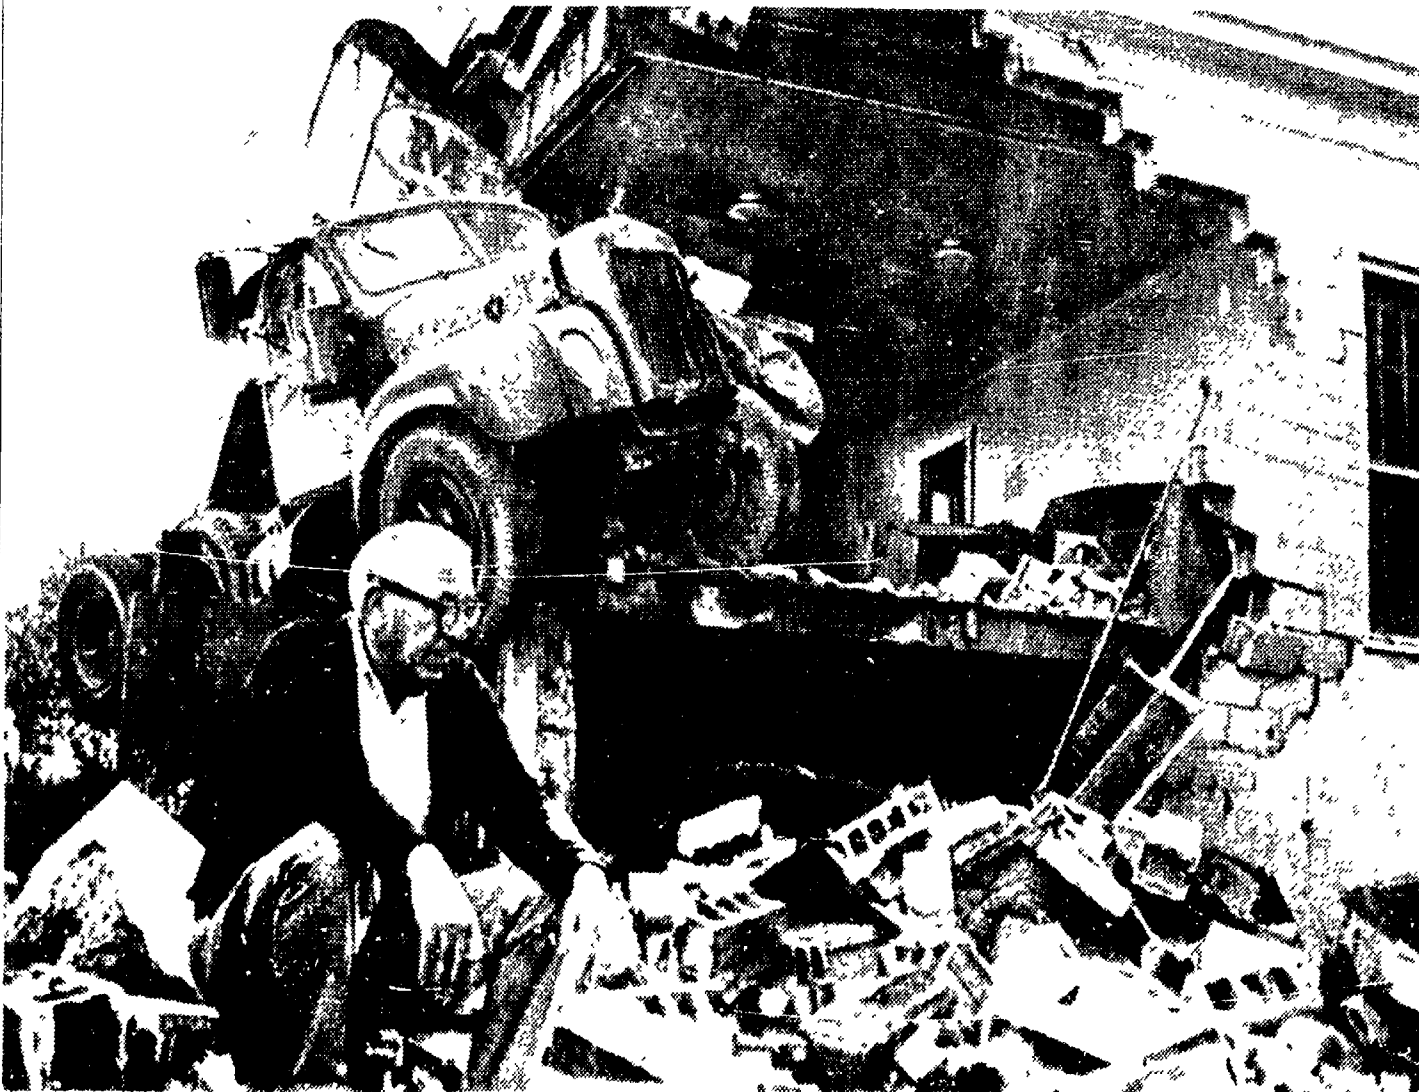

It appeared the fire was bypassing the town, but forecasts called for continued strong, shifting winds.

Optional Celibacy Seen In Future by Clerics

Although the choice may be would take us away from the permitted by a future pontiff, Church.

There could be room for optional celibacy for Roman Catholic priests probably will not be allowed under Pope Paul VI.

This was the general opinion of four Appleton clergymen interviewed by The Post-Crescent on the matter.

Questioned were Roman Catholic and Episcopal priests and Lutheran and Methodist ministers.

"There is no advantage for a married clergy in a large parish," the Rev. Robert Vandenberg, assistant pastor at St. Therese Catholic Church, said.

"A celibate clergyman is more free to give himself to the problems of the larger family of God," he added. "A family

Pastor Suggests Preservation of Small Churches

It is a mistake to abandon small churches, even those serving as few as 50 members, says a pastor who takes issue with denominational leaders who move to do away with struggling, dwindling congregations.

Even though it is unlikely that such churches will ever again support a full program, the Rev. William S. Earley proposes that they be retained as "memorial chapels."

Writing in a Methodist magazine, Pastor Earley reminds readers of their "backlog of memories dear to each community" and that many have adjoining cemeteries.

"With all the cries to save everything from the sequoias of California to old churches, and with national and state shrines springing up all over the country," he says, "why not a movement to save these churches?"

More Violence in TV Than Movies, States 'Dirty Dozen' Director

Dramatic Device Only Makes It Look So, Argues Network Official in Opposite View

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

Innocent or not, "Batman" is part of the steady diet of violence on the home screen. Nearly every Western and cops-and-robbers series as well as many of the dramatic shows must have a quota of beatings, fistfights or gun duels.

Director Robert Aldrich, whose "The Dirty Dozen" has been criticized by reviewers for excessive violence, comments: "Television is a worse offender than movies. Each action series comes to a point where it stops telling the story and indulges in three minutes of violence."

A network official argues, "When you're presenting drama in which characters clash, there may very well be violence. But television seems more violent than it is, because of a dramatic device."

"Many writers will put a violent scene at the end of a sequence so as to have an impact before the commercial. That impression remains with the viewer longer than if it had been placed earlier in the show."

Sensitive to Criticism

The networks have been sensitive to criticism of violence since 1955, when crime investigating Sen. Estes Kefauver suggested that the entertainment industry presented too much brutality. All three networks have censors—hidden under such euphemisms as "standards and practices" or "continuity acceptance"—who apply stricter rules about violence than now observed by the film industry's self-censorship code.

"Conflict is an essential part of drama, and it sometimes expresses itself in violence," said Robert Kasmire, an NBC vice president who supervises program standards. "Our policy about violence hasn't changed. We still apply three yardsticks to a violent scene:

"1. Is it motivated?
"2. Is it necessary?
"3. Is it excessive?"

"If the answer to the first two questions is no, and the answer to the third is yes, then we rule out the scene or temper it."

Dorothy Brown, director of broadcast standards for ABC, said the network had its own three principles about violence: 1. Is it shocking? 2. Will it provoke someone to copy it? 3. What is the duration? "There is no chance in our policy," she said. "We have never been more lenient or less lenient, more strict or less strict. We are guided by the reaction of the public and the press to certain scenes."

Certain specifics are handed down at ABC, and they sometimes rankle directors and writers. Among the rules: show a minimum of blood; avoid the impact of the death blow; close the eyes of the dead; present fight scenes of equals only; do not let one character dominate; no holding of heads under water for more than a beat.

A CBS spokesman would say only: "Incidents which may be called violent are limited to situations absolutely necessary for plot development or characterization. We scrutinize every incident of this nature to make sure excesses are avoided."

Drill Bits Worth $150 Taken From Cycle Shop

About $150 worth of electric drill bits were taken during a burglary at Jiffy Cycle Shop, 320 N. Union St.

The burglary was reported to Appleton police about 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Entry was gained by forcing a board from a door glass that had been broken previously.

Packers Vs. Browns on CBS Tonight

8:30 to Conclusion Channels 2-7

12 — National Football League Pre-Season Game pits the Green Bay Packers against the Cleveland Browns from Municipal Stadium, Cleveland, with Ray Scott giving the play-by-play and Frank Gifford analyzing. (C)

6:30-7:30 Channels 4-5 — Flipper introduced new characters in this episode who will not take the places of Bud and Sandy since this show has been discontinued. The cast includes Dirk, his little sister Liz and their widowed mother played by Karen Steele. The story line concerns the youngsters getting lost and Flipper finding them. (C-R)

6:30-7:30 Channels 2-7-12 — Away We Go Winds up its summer run as it started with vivacious Sheila MacRae guesting. She is joined by The Teddy Neely Five and regulars Buddy Greco and George Carlin. 7:30 Channels 4-5 — "Remember Lake Serene" is one of the funniest episodes of the "Please Don't Eat the Daisies" series. It concerns the unhappy life of an earnest bachelor and the determination of Joan and Marge to change it to wedded bliss. They enlist the aid of their spouses to get him on a camping trip and set up a tantalizing dish as bait. (C-R)

7:30-8 Channels 4-5 — The wrinkle in Get Smart's second episode of a three-parter, is Admiral Hargrade, the 91-year-old first chief of CONTROL. William Schallert plays the old gentleman who falls asleep in the middle of a sentence, points at something and falls over from the weight of his own finger and can't remember what comes between A and C (C-R)

7:30-8:30 Channels 2-7-12 — A highly complex plot and totally absorbing production makes Neely Five and regulars Buddy Greco and George Carlin. Greco, bet tonight. An ailing ruler of the Miriam Nelson Dancers friendly country has mistakenly offers the theme song "Away chosen a potential Communist

Marathon 'In', but 'Out' With State

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The boys in the Key Club at Tucker High School near here ran into a sticky legal wicket when they planned a croquet marathon recently.

Police and their parents said it was fine with them. Sorry, said Henrico County legal officials—Virginia has a law forbidding marathons "not of an athletic nature."

The boys thought croquet was athletic. Not so, said the powers-that-be. The croquet marathon was off and a football marathon was scheduled.

Pretty soon it was off, too. An assistant commonwealth's attorney said the law bars "any endurance contest of any nature under any name."

"Editor and Publisher" magazine. Written with James M. Force, Alan Bussel, instructor of journalism at the University of Marathon County Center, Wisconsin - (UW) Fox Valley sau, the article deals with Center, is the co-author of an opinions and concerns of editors article in the Aug. 12 issue of of high school newspapers.

Holidays on Mondays

How would you like five three-day vacationettes a year like the one you will enjoy this Labor Day weekend?

A bill now before Congress would observe Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day and Veterans Day on the Mondays closest to their present dates. Another similar bill would add Thanksgiving as the fourth Monday in November.

Federal legislation could designate these observance dates only for federal employes and the District of Columbia. But it is felt federal legislation would persuade states to follow with similar laws.

Hearings on the bills were held by both House and Senate subcommittees in August. After the Senate hearings, Senator Dirksen, who chaired them, said that if he can't get the bill out of committee he's going to "hook it onto any bill that comes along."

Memo to Truck Drivers

The house organ of the Wisconsin truck transportation industry publishes in its current edition a polite but firm reminder that to a considerable extent the public relations problems of this vital section of Wisconsin commerce rise and fall according to the conduct of the drivers of large trucks.

The professional driver of regulated trucking companies is usually a well-trained specialist, as the safety performance of the highway common carriers has abundantly demonstrated. Most of them have earned the designation of "Gentleman of the Highways," as the Teamsters' Union likes to describe these drivers. Perhaps there are very few drivers of passenger automobiles who have not in their traveling experience found timely aid from a trucker, or observed such assistance rendered to others as they passed.

But there are exceptions. The Wisconsin Motor Carriers Association maintains that many of the problems of trucking in relation to the private motorist derive from the carelessness of independent drivers and

The arguments against Monday holidays are that they would decrease patriotism and increase accidents. But supporters argue that the dates on which the holidays are currently observed do not relate to historical events. Thanksgiving, for instance, has been changed a number of times. The Resolution of Independence was approved on July 2, 1776. Supporters also argue it is easier to organize patriotic celebrations over three-day weekends.

As far as highway safety is concerned, some statistics indicate that there are more fatal accidents on mid-week holidays. The National Safety Council has testified that "Studies convict the one-day mid-week holiday as having a far higher kill rate than any one day of a three-day holiday weekend."

Opinion polls have indicated the people want Monday holidays. If they say so to Congress now, we could have them next year.

those not employed in the regulated industry, such as contract carriers and others. We are inclined to support the claim on the basis of our own observation. Yet the distinction is not really relevant, as far as public good will and understanding toward the regulated carriers is concerned. The private citizen does not distinguish between classifications of truckers.

When the complaints begin, the Association reminds all truck drivers, the entire occupational group gets a bad name and risks hostile political reaction.

"That's why the professional driver ought to be a gentleman, careful, respectful of traffic laws and building a superior record of safe driving," the carriers' news organization advises, and we agree heartily. There remains too much "tail-gating" on our roads and it is an irritating experience for the private motorist on those routes that carry two-way traffic. There is also some illegal speeding, as the studies of the State Highway Department have repeatedly shown.

Is Mao's Control Slipping?

Reports from observers in Hong Kong and other "China watchers" continue to record that near chaos is developing in a considerable part of the country. The revolt is not anti-Communist but rather appears to be a struggle for power among various military men, party members, Red Guards, workers and peasants and constant charges that everyone else is anti-Mao. But for all the claims of allegiance to Mao, his control over the nation may be slipping.

It all started when Mao proclaimed a new cultural revolution and encouraged the youthful and militant Red Guard to supervise the wiping out of capitalistic ideas and revisionist trends. The Red Guard went about its assignment with such enthusiasm, however, that violent opposition to their tactics developed among the masses. Mao hesitated to call out the People's Liberation Army to restore order although apparently he now has sent units to Canton. But the army itself is in a state of confusion since actions by military officers have run into criticism and even denunciation from Peking.

Apparently there has been widespread violence and fighting in several provinces and cities. Posters report 250 clashes in Wuhan in a two months period this spring with at least 350 deaths and almost 17,000 injuries. One organization called One Million Heroes clashed with another group named the Dare to Die Corps of the Finance and Trade Building and the Heroes chortled that more than 30 were killed with "bloodstained iron spears, steel forks and axes." When Mao sent some emissaries to restore order, the army commander arrested them and was later arrested himself.

The constantly unsettled conditions have been reflected in economic conditions. Fears over harvests have meant that peasants have been trying to hide some grain supplies and that army units have been sent to persuade them otherwise. There have been at least brief shutdowns in various factories and mines. Laborers have been on strike in several ports and foreign ships stand unloaded at anchor. And meanwhile Mao issues new couplets for the faithful to memorize and quote and warnings that "all members of the Communist Party and the people of the whole country must not think that everything will be all right after one or two great cultural revolutions, or even three or four."

If the current turmoil is the ideal of a cultural revolution, China is doomed to suffer for years. The conflicts today which almost seem to resemble the old battles of Chinese warlords may be a preview of what will happen in China once Mao Tse-tung is gone from the scene.

BY VERN HAUGLAND
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — When they first talked of sending astronauts to the moon, American scientists were like tourists plotting out interesting places to visit. Where do you land in a place you've never seen?

At first, scientists picked 30 potential sites. Since then they've gotten back enough pictures to fill many scrapbooks and they know the moon as well as a gambler knows Las Vegas. The number of potential sites has been narrowed to eight.

And by next February, says Dr. James H. Turnock Jr., special assistant to the director of the Apollo program, the field will be cut down to three or four.

NEED ALTERNATE SITES

"These are the sites about which the astronauts making the first flights will be thoroughly trained," Turnock said. "We don't want just one site. When the spacecraft lands it has to be at a good sun angle."

"For good visibility, the sun should be at an elevation of 13 to 30 degrees behind the Apollo Lunar Module, as it stands on the moon."

"The sun's terminator — the line between darkness and light — moves across the moon from east to west at the rate of 13 degrees a day — an earth day, not a lunar day, which consists of 28 earth days."

"If the sun's angle at a particular site is not right the first day, we would have to wait a month for that one. So we have a four-or-five day 'window.'"

"This means that if conditions are not satisfactory at the first site, two days later we can get to another site that is properly sunlit, and two days later to still another."

On the other hand, said Turnock, there is no need to have more than three or four sites, initially.

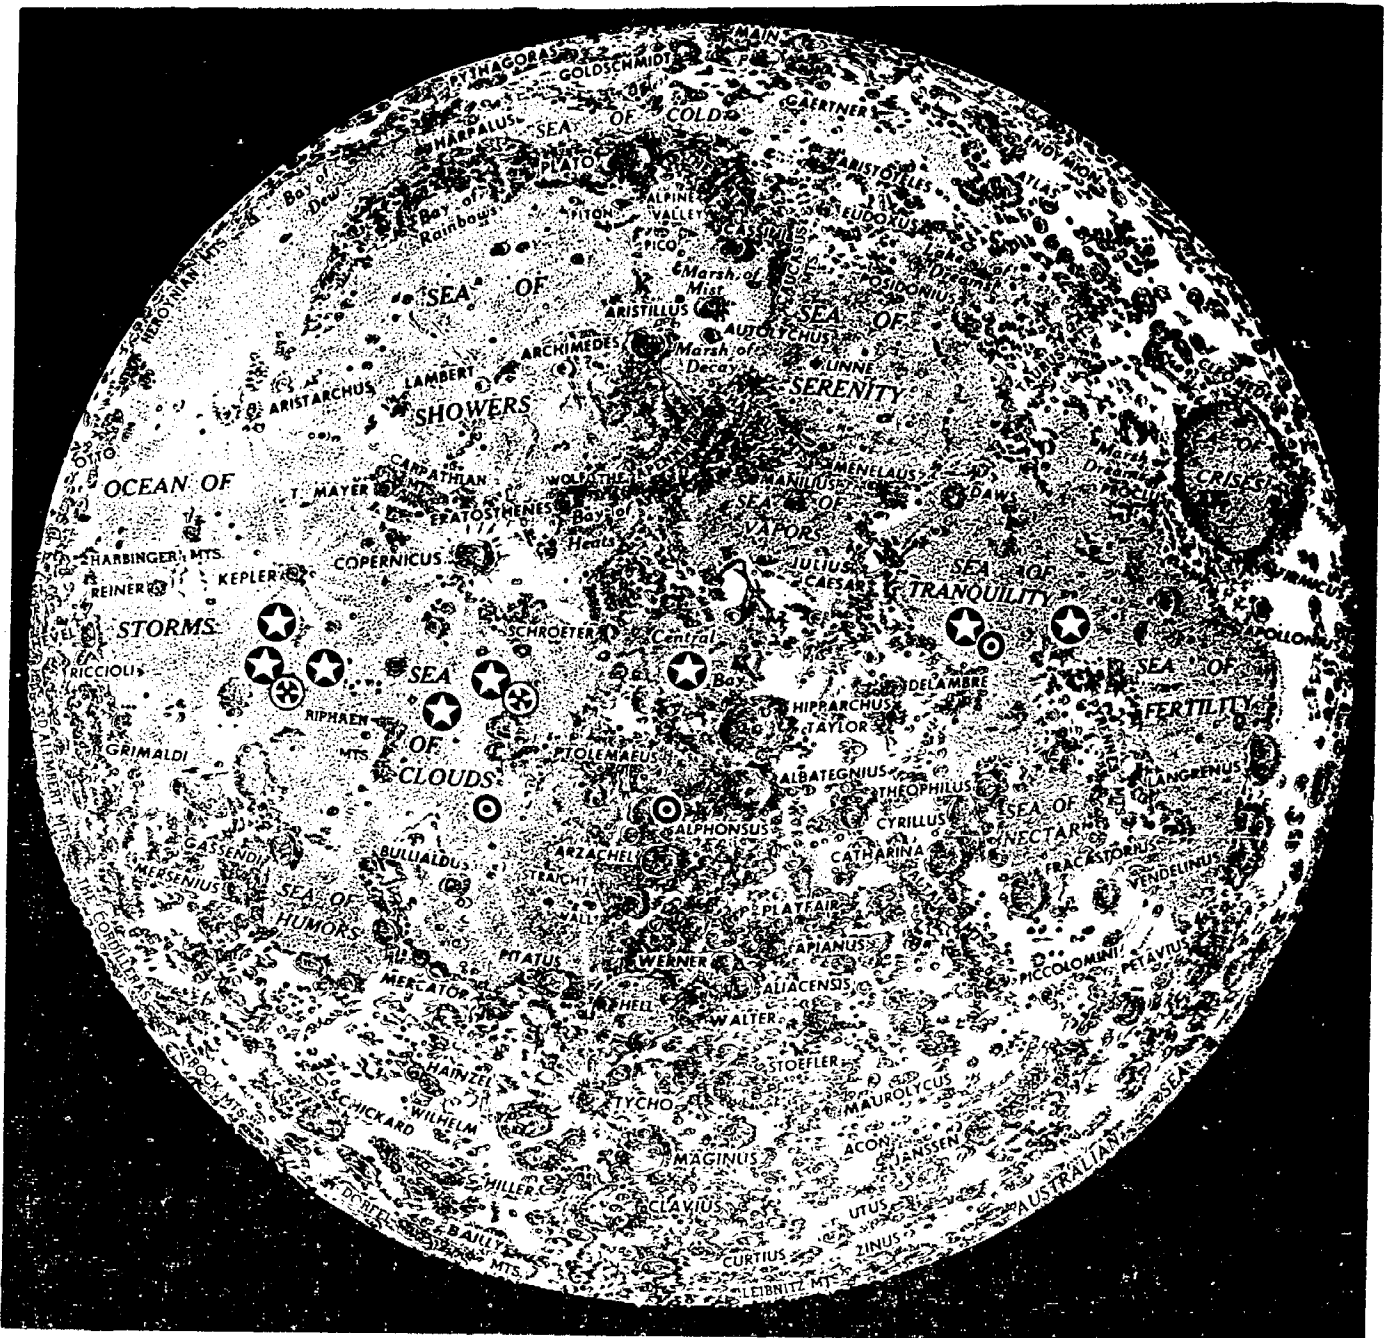

Each of the first astronauts must be thoroughly familiar with each of the potential landing sites — as familiar as a pilot training for a different landing field. "Training a man on a dozen sites doesn't gain anything," Turnock said in an interview.

"The initial landings will be made where the crater count is as low as possible and the terrain as level as can be found."

In addition, the potential landing area must be within an ellipse some 20 miles long in

MOONPORT I-- Picking the Landing Site

Will the first man-on-the-moon drop in on the Ocean of Storms or the Sea of Tranquility? Scientists have already narrowed the field of potential landing sites to eight, will soon cut it to three or four. Then pilots will get the full course on what to expect at Moonport I.

Your Problems
'Steno' Spends Lunch Hours Piercing Ears in Ladies' Room
BY ANN LANDERS
DEAR ANN LANDERS: I work for a large insurance company. Our department is called "The Fun And Games Department", because most of the secretaries and stenos are between 19 and 25. The girl I am writing about is 20. She spends her lunch hours piercing ears. This self-styled surgeon carries her "tools" in her purse — needles, alcohol, catgut and a magnifying glass. She performs the surgery in the ladies room. Already she has pierced 20 sets of ears in our department and has made appointments in other departments. I am not mad because the girl is making a small fortune on the side, but it seems to me that if she is going to perform illegal operations she should do it at home on her own time. What do you say? — No Holes In My Head
Dear No: Ear - piercing should be done by a physician in his office, and not by an amateur in a ladies room or even in her own home. It sounds as if the amateur surgeon has been lucky so far, but one of these days she may run into real trouble and then she'll wish she had stuck to her shorthand.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have an invalid mother who needs a great deal of attention. I am a professional woman and have engaged a nurse to care for Mother during the day. A practical nurse comes in at 4 p.m. and stays until I get home at 6:30. When I want to go out for the evening I must hire another nurse. The woman isn't always available and Mother is hard to get along with and won't stay with just anybody.

Is alcoholism a disease? How can the alcoholic be treated? Is there a cure? Read the booklet "Alcoholism — Hope and Help," by Ann Landers. Enclose 35 cents in coin with your request and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems, whereas children will let you know when they have lost interest. When you become bored, start throwing things—then we'll know.

McClone Hurls Five Scoring Passes as Zephyrs Win, 33-14

Zephyrs Overcome 14-6 Deficit To Take Non-League Opener

BY GEORGE MANCOSKY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

OCONTO FALLS — Quarterback Mike McClone pitched five touchdown passes as St. Mary High School gave Coach L. G. Friedrichs a successful debut with a 33-14 non-conference conquest of Oconto Falls here Friday night.

The Zephyrs trailed, 14-6, with less than five minutes to play in the second period but scored twice in less than two minutes for a 19-14 halftime lead. They had things pretty much their own way in the second half, containing the Panthers in their half of the field.

McClone, son of former Zephyr coach Ralph McClone, completed seven of 11 passes for 175 yards and no interceptions. He was on target on almost every throw and kept the defense guessing with a fine job of faking.

After giving up a 56-yard touchdown pass in the second period, the Zephyr defense stiffened. It began to get a good rush on the passer with the result that two of Falls' last three completions went for minus yardage while two others were intercepted.

Bill Heimerman, senior half-back, made two interceptions, recovered a fumble, scored a touchdown and kicked three straight extra points after missing the first two.

Double Fumble

The Zephyrs scored the first time they had the ball although they lost possession temporarily they completed a third down pass, lost the ball on a fumble but the Panthers fumbled it back for a net gain of 14 yards on the Falls 44.

After a 15-yard penalty on the hosts and a 2-yard gain, McClone passed to end Mark Pozolinski for 29 yards and the initial score. Pozolinski was five yards beyond the Falls defense. Oconto Falls recovered a fumble on the Zephyrs' 25 later in the first period and scored in five plays. Steve Herms going around right end from the five. Ken Jahnke kicked the extra point.

The Panthers, coached by Gary Just, former Lawrence University quarterback, went 81 yards in four plays for their first second score early in the second period. The clincher was a 56-yard pass from Dan Coopman to Herms. Jahnke's kick upped the score to 14-6.

Strike Quickly

St. Mary didn't buckle but struck quickly after a Falls punt went out of bounds on the latter's 42. On the first play, McClone, after a good fake, passed

Twins' Winning Streak Ends at 7

Cosmidis Proud of Foxes' Comeback

BY TIM PETERMAN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

"I was proud of the way they came back," Appleton manager Alex Cosmidis stated in the locker room following his Foxes' 8-5 victory over Wisconsin Rapids in the second game of the Midwest League playoffs.

With their backs to the wall, having lost the first game of the best-of-3 series, the Foxes halted the momentum of a 7-game Wisconsin Rapids win streak to even the series at one game apiece. The Twins have now lost only three of their last 15 games, but all three defeats have been following Thursday's loss. Cosmidis was pleased to point out that "Deacon" Jones, George Hunter and Roy Radmaker (the No. 3, 4, and 5 men) had six hits apiece in the game.

The mild-mannered first year skipper could not single out any individual stars for the Foxes. Cosmidis also praised the nodding that everyone contributed, veteran Willie Hooker for his stands can second-guess him something. Cosmidis did state "superb job" of relief, one of his added that in tonight's game the longest relief stunts of the year.

Jones, Ortiz Lead 8-5 Victory With 3 Hits Apiece; Hooker Rivera Preserve Hollrah's Win

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Pedro Rivera made the only pitch he threw more consequential than the 288 that had been served up by seven previous hurlers here Friday night as he preserved an 8-5, series-tying victory for the Appleton Foxes in the Midwest League title playoff.

Relieving Willie Hooker in the ninth inning, with the tying runs on base, two out and a 2-0 count on the dangerous Al Nordberg, Rivera forced the batter to hit back to the mound on the first offering — and Pedro threw him out.

With the series tied at one win apiece, the 1967 ML championship will be on the line tonight at Goodland Field. The deciding game will start early — at 6 p.m. — in order to enable fans to watch the Packer-Brown game on television later in the evening. Either Steve Kokor (7-5) or Ken Murphy (6-3) will start on the mound for the Foxes against Bob Rommes (1-4).

Unlike the series opener Thursday, at Wisconsin Rapids, the second-round champion Foxes broke on top with a 3-run first inning that was keyed by "Deacon" Jones' 2-run triple. The first-half champion Twins were forced to play catch-up ball the rest of the way. They almost made it in the ninth.

Hooker, who had sparked with three scoreless innings in relief of starter Orville Hollrah, began to weaken in the final frame as pinch batter Bob Nash hit a 1-out single. Hooker rallied to strike out Ezell Carter. But Emil Gove walked, and Craig Mackay slapped a run-scoring single to center — reducing the deficit to 8-5.

Chuck Manuel walked to fill the bases. Nordberg, who already had boomed a triple and a single, took two bad pitches before Appleton Manager Alex Cosmidis decided to change was called for.

In came Rivera, one of the unsung heroes of the Foxes' second-round pennant drive. Served up a screwball that Nordberg topped back to the mound.

Thus, the Twins, who Manager Ray Bellino had said earlier, were "all packed and ready to go home" will have to stick around an extra day for the rubber game.

A Better Prophet

Cosmidis proved a better prophet in that respect (saying in a pre-game statement to the fans, "I hope you come out tomorrow night"). But he was a bit wrong in another prediction, as he introduced Hollrah as "our starting pitcher and finishing pitcher."

Hollrah pitched five complete innings and to two batters in the sixth — which proved to be enough action to nail down his 12th win in 14 decisions this season. He had a couple of shaky innings but twice retired the side in order.

The Foxes gave most of the five Twins pitchers a rough time as they outthit their opponents for the second straight night (this time, 12-9). Jim Fuchs, who had fanned seven in three innings and had permitted only one earned run, was knocked out of the box, literally, when a Chuck Brinkman line drive caught him on the side of the kneecap and felled him. He was helped off the field, and examinations revealed that the injury was a bruise rather than a break.

Jones and Jose Ortiz paced the Appleton attack, with three hits apiece in four official trips. "Deacon" had two singles to go along with his triple, while Ortiz had three singles and reached base on each of his five trips.

The 3-4-5 hitters in the Foxes' order (Jones, George Hunger and Roy Radmaker accounted for six hits after having been hitless the previous night).

After the crowd of 1,117 fans had watched Hollrah retire the Twins 1-2-3 in the top of the first inning, Ortiz led off the bottom half by reaching second on an error by centerfielder Carter. Stu Singleton walked. With the outfield shaded to the left, the left-handed hitting Jones slashed a liner down the right field line to score both runners. The fiery veteran completed his triple with a head-first slide into third.

Joe Monty sent Jones across with a squeeze bunt.

The Twins cut away most of that margin in their half of the second frame. Chuck Manuel doubled and rode home on Nordberg's single to right. Steve Free singled to left. Both runners moved up on Glen Smith's infield-out. Lee Robinson hit to shortstop Singleton, and Free was run down for the put-out, but Nordberg scored.

3 Straight Hits

Li the second, the Foxes reeled off three straight singles.

Twins 'Given' 5-4 Win

Boston Routs Chicago To Maintain Half Game Lead as Harrelson Stars

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fenway Park has opened its arms again to Ken Harrelson and the Boston Red Sox. Minnesota's Municipal Stadium has turned a cold shoulder on Ed Mathews and the Detroit Tigers.

Harrelson and Mathews, prize late-season pick-ups for the Red Sox and Tigers, respectively, found themselves in the thick of the American League pennant scramble Friday night—with different results.

Harrelson, signed by Boston last week after being dropped by Kansas City, drove in four runs with a homer, triple and double as the Red Sox emerged from a hitting slump, pounded Chicago 10-2 and clung to first place.

Mathews, acquired by Detroit in an inter-league trade with Houston last month, committed two first-inning errors as the Tigers fumbled away a 5-4 decision to the second place Twins at Minnesota.

Still Lead

The Red Sox still lead the Twins by one half-game while third place Detroit is two games behind and the fourth-place White Sox trail by 2½.

California rallied for two runs in the ninth inning and a 4-3 triumph over Cleveland, the New York Yankees edged Washington 2-1 in 12 innings on Mike Hegan's first major league homer and Baltimore shaded Kansas City 2-1 in other AL games.

"I always did like to hit in this park," Harrelson said after leading Boston's 13-hit assault with a two-run triple in the first inning, a bases-empty homer in the fifth and a run-producing double in the seventh.

"I drove in five runs in one game a couple of years ago, and I had a couple of good days here with the Athletics earlier this season."

Batter Peters

The Red Sox, who had managed just two hits in Thursday night's 4-2 loss to Chicago, battered White Sox' ace Gary Peters for seven runs in the first

St. John '11' Beats Waupaca on Two Second-Half TDs

Schuler and Draheim Score; Chuter Defense Stands Out

BY JOHN SAWALL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

WAUPACA — Little Chute St. John Friday, scored a 13-0 win over Waupaca here in a season opening non-conference football game.

The Comets managed to hold the more experienced and heavier Chuters scoreless until early in the third quarter, when "Oscar" Schuler, St. John's 200-pound running back broke around his own right end and went 35 yards for a touchdown. Gary VanDeHey put the ball through the uprights on the conversion attempt to give the visitors a 7-point margin.

Waupaca was unable to get a scoring drive underway, but it appeared early in the second quarter that it might go all the way when they managed to get to the 9-yard-line, but a John Holly pass was picked off in the end zone by a Little Chute defender.

The Comets were able to move the ball well in the first half, when they picked up over 70 yards on the ground. But in the second half, the strength of the big Chuters' line began to show and Waupaca was shoved back repeatedly. The Comets finished with a net gain of 47 yards for the game.

In 22 passing attempts, the Comets picked up 75 yards, but shooting linebackers gave Waupaca's quarterback constant trouble.

With 2:38 remaining in the final period, the Chuters drove from their own 30-yard stripe to the nine in six plays, and from there fullback Joe Draheim bulled his way over the center of the line for the second touchdown. The snap-back on the PAT attempt was fumbled.

St. John gained 211 yards on the ground in 38 rushing plays and picked up another 19 yards on passing.

The game was the first time the Central Wisconsin Conference team and St. John of the Fox Valley Catholic Conference met.

Grier Tears Leg Tendon, May be Lost for Season

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Veteran Roosevelt Grier, a member of the Los Angeles Rams' defensive front four, suffered a badly torn right leg Achilles tendon in the inter-league exhibition football game with Kansas City Friday night. The 287-pound tackle was expected to be lost to the NFL team for at least two months and possibly the season.

Rams Rally to Drub Chiefs

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams, outplayed and trailing by 11 points at halftime, exploded for three touchdowns in the third period Friday night and went on to defeat the Kansas City Chiefs, 44-24 before a capacity crowd of 73,990 in the LA Coliseum.

Quarterback Roman Gabriel and end Jack Snow combined their aerial artistry to pull the Rams out in front on two spectacular plays—the first a 40-yard touchdown strike that narrowed the score to 24-20, and then a 62-yard pass that put the Rams in front to stay, 27-24.

Lester Joe-phson put the game out of sight before the period ended, rumbling 55 yards down the Ram sideline on a pichtout from Gabriel.

Defensive back Clancy Williams ended the night's histrionics when he picked off a pass by the Chiefs' Pete Beathard and raced it back 55 yards.

The Rams scored 10 points in the first six minutes but Beathard put Kansas City right back with a 76-yard scoring pass to Otis Taylor, another to Taylor for 13 and a 25-yarder to Chris Burford. Jan Stenerud contributed a 48-yard field goal in the first half.

It was the fifth straight victory for the Rams and the first

Bears Thrash Cards Behind Rakestraw

Larry Throws One, Runs for Two TDs In 42-14 Win

CHICAGO (AP) — Patience and perseverance apparently are going to pay off for Larry Rakestraw.

Rakestraw, who has spent most of his professional career on the taxi squad, got his big chance Friday night and gave the Chicago Bears the lift they needed in a 42-14 exhibition victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

It was a sorely needed triumph for the Bears who had lost all three of their previous exhibition games including a 6-24 humiliation at the hands of Kansas City of the American Football League.

Rakestraw started for the Bears and led them to a 35-7 halftime lead before leaving the game.

Pass to Piccolo

The former Georgia star threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to Brian Piccolo and scored two touchdowns on runs of 15 and four yards.

His teammates gave him the game ball and sportswriters covering the game voted him the outstanding player in the Armed Forces charity game which drew a crowd of 41,073 in Soldier Field.

Rakestraw, who had never thrown a pass in a professional game, completed four of eight for 81 yards and carried four times for 28 yards.

However, all he could talk about was Gale Sayers' 72-yard touchdown run on the first play in the second quarter which touched off the rout of the Cardinals.

"I gave him the ball and then watched him go," said Rakestraw. "I couldn't believe it so I kept following him."

Game-Plan Decisions

Owner-coach George Halas wouldn't confirm that Rakestraw had earned himself a starting job but said the only reason the 25-year-old Georgian wasn't used in the second half was because of the previous game-plan decision to go with Rakestraw only in the first half.

"It was a good win," said Halas. "One that we needed. Larry did a great job. He was a great help to their offense."

Were the Bears out to avenge their loss to Kansas City? "We don't mention the Kansas City game," said Halas. "The day after that game we went to work and forgot all about it. The Cardinals are a good team. We just caught them on an off night."

Sayers scored the first two touchdowns and Rakestraw ran for two and passed for another as the Bears piled up a 35-0 lead before St. Louis scored on

Brillion Rally Tops Freedom In Grid Opener

Hansen Scores 2 Touchdowns, Passes For Another

BRILLION — Quarterback Russ Hansen scored on runs of 40 and 88 yards and passed 25 yards for another touchdown as Brillion rallied to topple Freedom, 20-12, in the Little Nine football opener Friday.

Freedom took an early 6-0 edge, when halfback Dan Vandewettering went off tackle for a 50-yard TD on the fourth play from scrimmage.

The 195-pound Hansen countered with his 40-yard jaunt midway in the second quarter to tie the game. But the Irish struck for their final six points before the half when quarterback Pete Van Weichen hit halfback Al Garvey with a 19-yard scoring toss.

Brillion's Larry Haberman received a Freedom fumble on the Irish 28-yard line early in the third quarter and was on the receiving end of Hansen scoring three plays later. Hansen's Cleveland's gifted split end, Paul kick put Brillion ahead for good at 13-12, and the Lions' junior signal-caller later raced 88 yards for the clincher.

Hansen gained 153 yards in six carries. Brillion outstruck the Irish, 178-176, but Freedom garnered 73 yards to the Lions' 49 in the air.

'Carling' Layout Tough on Pros

Only 17 Are Under Par; Dick Sikes Takes Early Lead

WOODBIDGE, Ont. (AP) — The expansive and undulating greens gave touring golf professionals a roller-coaster ride Friday in the opening round of the $200,000 Carling World Championship at the Toronto Board of Trade Country Club.

Only 17 of the 141 players who play today in the second round of the 72-hole tournament have scores of par or better to build upon.

R. H. "Dick" Sikes, who only last week got his putting game under control, took a one-stroke lead over Gary Player of South Africa and veteran Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La., as he fired a three-under 68 on the 7,024-yard, par 36-35-71 layout. Sikes, who made the most of putting tips from fellow professionals Bert Yancy and Dick Crawford, was the only man to cover the treacherous course without slipping over par on a single hole.

It was the second straight round the slim Ohioan has shot without slipping over par on a hole.

The rest of the field found their scores rising with almost every dip of the greens. By the end of the first round, which saw eight players withdraw and two more disqualified for card signing infractions, golfers were labeling the layout a thinking Browns' No. 2 receiver with man's course and the greens eight catches for 124 yards.

Besides the top trio, only Randy Glover of Sandford, N.C., Lee Trevino of El Paso, Texas, Chi Chi Rodriguez of Puerto Rico and Tony Jacklin of London, England, managed to beat par.

astute coaches, the Browns' 0-4 record to the contrary notwithstanding. And, admittedly, the Browns have the wherewithal to be more than slightly obnoxious — the explosive running of Kelly and the Irish 28-yard line early in the third quarter and was on the receiving end of Hansen scoring three plays later. Hansen's Cleveland's gifted split end, Paul kick put Brillion ahead for good at 13-12, and the Lions' junior signal-caller later raced 88 yards for the clincher.

They also are dangerous from any point up to 45 yards, of course, with the accurate toe of the venerable Lou Groza, the man who has scored more points than any other player in NFL history, available.

Hereabouts, the feeling is that the Packers' miserly defense holds the key to the Browns' chances. Cleveland's most knowledgeable observers assume the Brown defense is capable of containing the Packer attack, but they are not at all sure the offense can make satisfactory progress against the Packer resistance, pointing out that it has yielded only 23 points in four ventures to date.

Although Bart Starr will be available if needed, Zeke Bratkowski will start at quarterback for the Pack. Starr, who has been plagued by a rib muscle pull, incurred against the Bears in the Bay's second non-league appearance Aug. 18 and aggravated on the Packers' second offensive series in Dallas, is not expected to play.

Bratkowski, who maneuvered the champions to all 20 of their points in that conquest of the Cowboys, takes a glossy 70.9 passing percentage into action. Otherwise, the Packer format is expected to remain unchanged, with sophomores Donny Anderson and Jim Grabowski opening at running back and Bob Brown, another second year performer, at right defensive end in place of the injured Lionel Aldridge.

The Pack's Grabowski and Browns' Kelly, their teams' leading rushers, have compiled virtually identical records, with Grabo having amassed 146 yards in 33 thrusts, a 4.4 average, and Kelly, 138 in 30 attempts, a 4.6 ratio. Boyd Dowler paces receiver on both of tonight's rivals with 18 catches for 247 yards and two touchdowns. Clifton McVeil, Cleveland's leading receiver with nine receptions for 140 yards, is sidelined with a fracture of the upper right arm suffered in last week's game against Atlanta. Collins is the Browns' No. 2 receiver with eight catches for 124 yards.

235-Pound Pro Grizzer Succumbs

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A 235-pound defensive tackle on the suburban Brandon High School team died Friday after collapsing during conditioning exercises a day earlier.

David Palms, 17, was stricken Thursday afternoon as he rested in the locker room after an afternoon workout with the football team. He was a co-captain.

An autopsy was performed, but the results were not available. An attending physician said Friday night that, "so far, we haven't found sufficient cause for his death as far as trauma or injury" was concerned. The youth's mother, Mrs. Bernard Palms, said medical authorities had told her "they believe he had a weak blood vessel in his neck. It could have been there since birth."

The Appleton Foxes' Chuck Brinkman slides across the plate, after scoring from first base on a double by pitcher Orville Hollrah in the fifth inning of Friday's Midwest League playoff game at Goodland Field.

Walk Forces in Only Run of Game; Cards Blank Astros

By RON RAPOPORT Associated Press Sports Writer

Gaylord Perry's scoreless-inning streak is longer than Cincinnati's, but no one can say the Reds didn't make a try for it. The record books got a good thumbing through Friday night — make that Saturday morning — as scoreless inning piled on scoreless inning before San Francisco mercifully got a bases-loaded walk in the 21st frame from Bob Lee and won 1-0.

Perry went the first 16 innings for the Giants, leaving for a pinch hitter in the 17th. He gave up 10 hits and struck out 12. Perry hasn't allowed a run in 29 innings and the night's work lowered his earned-run average from 3.17 to 2.96.

The end finally came when, with one out in the 21st, Jim Hart singled, Ollie Brown doubled, Hal Lanier was walked intentionally and Dick Groat was walked unintentionally, forcing in Hart.

two innings and breezed the rest of the way behind the strong pitching of Jose Santiago.

Mathews, who has driven in eight runs in 13 games with the Tigers, made a two-base throwing error on Harmon Killebrew's grounder in the first inning at Minnesota, then slipped on the slick infield after fielding Cesar Tovar's bouncer and was unable to make the play.

Each of his errors sent runs across the plate and two more Detroit miscues in the third gave the Twins another unearned tally.

Southpaw Jim Kaat, staked to an early 5-2 lead, withstood Bill Freehan's ninth inning homer and boosted his season record to 10-13.

Trailing 3-2 in the ninth, the Angels pushed over the tying run against Sam McDowell on a walk and singles by Bob Taylor and Bobby Knoop. After another walk filled the bases, first baseman Tony Horton booted Jimmie Hall's two-out grounder as the winning run crossed the plate.

Hegan, a 146 hitter, belted his game-winning homer off Washington reliever Dick Lines with two out in the 12th. Left-hander Fritz Peterson limited the Senators to four hits on the way to his sixth victory in 19 decisions.

Curt Blefary lashed a run-scoring single in the ninth inning to lift the Orioles past Kansas City. Pete Richert blanked the A's after the first inning, when they scored without benefit of a hit.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING—Woody Fryman, Pirates, fired a three-hit, no-run, no-error performance in a 3-0 victory over Philadelphia.

BATTING—Ken Harrelson, nerve in his right leg, and Red Sox, drove in four runs with a double, triple and homer, leading Boston past the Chicago White Sox 10-2.

The Twins' catcher is Lee Robinson. The Foxes won, 8-5, to send the series into tonight's (6 p.m.) deciding game. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Giants Win Record 21-Inning Tilt, 1-0

Phillie batters and gave up just three hits in winning his third game of the season against seven defeats. He missed Bob Veale's Pirate strikeout record by one. Matty Alou and Bill Mazerolski drove in runs.

The Dodgers got homers from Bob Bailey, Willie Davis and Al Ferrara to win their fifth game in six starts. Ferrara's shot in the fifth inning broke a 4-4 tie.

Joe Torre hit his 19th homer and drove in two runs for the Braves.

a short pass from Jim Hart to Johnny Roland with 14 seconds to play.

The game bogged down in the second half and the two teams traded fourth-quarter touchdowns with the Bears scoring on a 43-yard pass from Rudy Bukich to Bobby Jones and the Cardinals counting on a 29-yard loss from Hart to Sonny Randle.

Chicago netted 461 yards to 303 for St. Louis, outrushing the Cardinals 261 yards to 64 while St. Louis picked up a passing edge, 268 yards to 211.

Hart, successor to Charley Johnson who is in service, completed 20 of 35 for 268 yards but had three of his tosses intercepted — all of which were turned into touchdowns by the suddenly potent Bear offense.

St. Louis blanked Houston 5-0, Pittsburgh shut out Philadelphia 3-0, Los Angeles beat Atlanta 6-4 and Chicago split a doubleheader with New York 8-2 and 0-3.

Billie Jean King Opens Title Bid; Newcombe Wins

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — This is the day Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., begins a quest to become the first American to win a U.S. tennis championship since Darlene Hard was successful in 1961.

It is also the day a couple of former men's title holders, Roy Emerson of Australia and 44-year-old Vic Seixas, continue their bid in second round matches and it is also the day the barred committee hopes the injury jinx will end.

"I don't think I'm running a tournament," quipped Ernest Oberlander, chairman of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association's championships committee.

"I think I'm running a hospital."

This 86th championship has been hit by a rash of injuries. The latest to withdraw were Tony Roche of Australia, seeded third, and Tory Ann Fretz of Los Angeles, unseeded but ranked fourth nationally.

Sore Shoulder

Roche, finalist in both Italian and French championships, left the tournament with a sore shoulder and Miss Fretz injured a foot early in a match with Stephanie De Fina of Hollywood, Fla.

They merely followed others who departed earlier — ex-champ Maria Bueno of Brazil, Nancy Richey of San Angelo, Tex., Luis Garcia of Mexico and John Cooper of Australia among them.

And while Roche, who stated the first had trouble with the shoulder in Newport, Wales, following Wimbledon, and awakened Friday morning in pain, withdrew when an injection failed to help him, there also was apprehension the tournament could lose Wimbledon champ John Newcombe.

Newcombe had a pinched nerve in his right leg, and admitted he couldn't move well in his four-set victory over young leading Boston past the Chicago White Sox 10-2.

Haese's PAT Kick Proves Difference In Little 9 Game

SHIOCTON — A missed conversion opened the door for the Wrightstown Tigers to hang on for a 7-6 win over Hortonville High School here Friday.

Marty Nackers tallied the Wrightstown touchdown in the third quarter on a 65-yard runback of an intercepted Dick Tennie Pass. The extra-point kick by Carl Haese proved to be the eventual game-deciding point.

Hortonville tallied with 45 seconds to play. Jerry Rudloff paced the ground game on the 46 yard drive, with the scoring strike being a 4-yard pass from Tennie to Rick Pankow. The Polar Bears attempted to run across the extra point but failed.

The winners connected on three of 14 passes for 40 yards and added 62 on the ground. Hortonville hit on nine of 16 aerals for 118 yards drove to the 57 on the ground.

The Polar Bears drove to the Tiger 15-yard line in the second period, but a fumble there ended the threat.

Dickson Keeps Tourney Lead

Giles 3 Strokes Behind; Gary Cowan 5 Off the Pace

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — The sun smiled broadly, dispositions and scores improved but that was the only difference as Army Private Bob Dickson continued his dominance through the second round of the 67th U.S. Amateur Golf Championships.

The sweet-swinging former Oklahoma State star and present British Amateur titleholder stroked his second 71 Friday over the 6,946 yard par 35-35-70 Broadmoor West course for 142 and a three-stroke lead going into today's final two 18-hole rounds.

He's paired with his closest pursuer, Marvin (Vinnny) Giles III of Charlottesville, Va., at 145 after a second round 69 — only the second subpar round of the weather-plagued tourney.

The 36-hole action today was necessitated by the rainout of Wednesday's first round.

On National TV

Their final holes are programmed for national television (ABC, 6:30 p.m., EDT).

Defending champion Gary Cowan of Kitchener, Ont., was grouped at 147 with long-hitting Marty Fleckman of Port Arthur, Tex., and Downing Gray of Pensacola, Fla. They were a stroke back of third-placer Doug Olson, a Medford, Ore., star on University of Houston's perennial NCAA golf champions. He had identical rounds of 73 for 146.

White Sox Call Up Cotton Nash

BOSTON (AP) — Former Kentucky Basketball All America Cotton Nash was called up Friday by the Chicago White Sox and was in uniform for their game with the Boston Red Sox.

The White Sox announced Nash had acquired the 26-year old right-handed hitter's contract from their Indianapolis farm club under the player selection agreement.

Nash, a 6-foot-6, 200 pound first baseman and outfielder was batting .276 at Indianapolis, pending but Nelson plans to return here Sunday.

(by Ortiz, Singleton and Jones), but it took a wild pitch by Fuchs to produce a run. Prior to the errant toss, Ortiz had been thrown out trying to advance from first to third on a hit.

The Foxes increased their lead to 6-2 in the fifth, as Brinkman hit a 1-out single. Hollrah doubled him in, and Ortiz came up with a run-scoring single.

In the Wisconsin Rapids sixth, Manuel walked and Nordberg slammed a triple to deep center and scored on Radmaker's wide throw to the plate on the relay. With their lead reduced to 6-4, the Foxes brought in Hooker.

The wily veteran held the Twins at bay until the ninth.

The Foxes, meanwhile, added a run in the sixth on walks to Jones and Monty. A Radmaker double and a Brinkman sacrifice fly and a run in the eighth (on successive singles by Jones, Hunter and Radmaker).

Hospital 'Superintendents' Lose 'Front Row' Viewpoint

NEENAH-MENASHA — The Neenah-Menasha community chest opened its pre-campaign drive today with the mailing of 5,000 letters to retired persons and others not solicited at work, professional people, and the key "special gifts" list.

The drive, to raise $225,000 to support the 13 chest agencies, officially opens Oct. 2 and closes three weeks later.

Letters soliciting gifts from local industrial corporations, were mailed at the same time to allow time for consideration of the requests at out-of-town corporate headquarters.

"Because we plan no house-to-house solicitation, some people who would otherwise not be solicited welcome the reminder letter," George P. Mueller, 1967 fund drive chairman, said.

"Others who want to plan their gifts for payment throughout the year have time to do so before the campaign opens."

Waiter-Waitress Class Scheduled at Neenah Vocational School

NEENAH — The Vocational and Adult School will offer training for prospective waiters and waitresses and food service personnel in six-week courses starting Sept. 11 and Oct. 23, according to Mrs. Irma Kyle, home economics coordinator.

The sessions are for employees and prospective employees. The informal program will feature demonstrations, discussions and practice.

Instruction will be given in personal development, ethics of the occupation, customer-employee relationships and salesmanship as it relates to waiter-waitress service.

Shiocton Boy Held as Girl's Attacker

MOTORIST REPORTS Accident Bringing Incident to Light

WAUPACA — A 16-year-old rural Shiocton youth is being held in Waupaca County Jail today following the alleged rape of a 15-year-old Manawa girl late Friday night.

The girl reported to authorities that she and another rural Manawa girl were being taken home from the New London youth center in a car with the 16-year-old and an 18-year-old Black Creek youth. The car was parked about five miles north of Manawa on Waupaca County Trunk N about a mile from the home of one of the girls.

The girl reported that she had gotten out of the car and was walking down the roadway when she was attacked.

Police Notified

Police were notified of the incident when a passing motorist saw the auto in the ditch and reported it as an accident to Manawa police.

Manawa police chief Kenneth Stevens went to the scene. The girl was taken to Waupaca where she was examined by doctors who confirmed her claim.

The 18-year-old youth also is being held in Waupaca County jail. Undersheriff Loran Frazier is continuing the investigation.

Public Employee Benefits Vary Widely Among Cities

BY CLIFF MILLER
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

LAKE DELTON — Wages and benefits received by employees of Wisconsin cities differ sharply from city to city, officials at a conference on employee bargaining learned Thursday and Friday.

Similar differences appear when city government workers and industrial workers are compared, the conference revealed.

While the information may be useful for city officials sitting across bargaining tables from employee negotiators in coming weeks, it appears uncertain whether the knowledge will necessarily bring about a closer similarity in pay and benefits in different cities.

Former Neenah Girl Appears In Model of Year Pageant

NEENAH — Kathleen Holverson, a former Neenah resident, was one of the 14 finalists in the Model of the Year Pageant, on television this week.

Appearing under her professional name, Kathleen Lancaster, she paraded with the others before the New York City fashion designers and representatives of Cover Girl Makeup, sponsor of the television show.

A member of the class of 1963 at Neenah High School, Miss Holverson was active in the French and Spanish clubs, Thes-

Ground Rules Set For Teacher Contract Talks

MENASHA — The negotiating teams for the Menasha Teachers Union Local 1166, AFL-CIO and the board of education met Thursday night to talk over the ground rules for negotiating 1968-69 teachers' contracts.

The time for exchanging contract proposals has not been set. Meeting times have not been determined and the ground rules are not ready for publication. The teams reported jointly Friday afternoon through Supt. M. J. Gegan.

Ronald Day is chairman of the Teachers Union team. Barry Ewald, union president, Eugene Herubin and Miss Sally Weisgerber will represent the teachers in this year's contract discussions.

The board of education is represented by James Tennesen, chairman of the personnel committee, Donald Thornton and Roger Fljage. Supt. Gegan is always present at negotiations.

pians and took a very active part in debate, forensics and writing for the Creative Writers and Rocket Echoes.

She had an academic record which earned the eighth place rank in a class of 250 graduates.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert J. Holverson, she resided with her family at 650 Winnebago Heights.

After graduation she was accepted at Smith College, Northampton, Mass. The family moved two years ago to San Diego, Cal.

She missed placing in the top three.

Law Enforcement Course to be Offered at Neenah Adult School

NEENAH — AN eight-week law enforcement training program will be conducted at the Neenah Vocational Adult School with morning and evening sessions starting Jan. 17 and 18.

Six two-hour and two three-hour weekly sessions will be held with the evening classes from 7 to 9 p.m. and the morning class from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.

The program is being developed through the joint effort of Neenah and Menasha Vocational Schools, the Neenah and Menasha Police Departments and the State Board of Vocational, Technical and Adult Education.

The first session will cover "The Police Image and Public Relations," and will be conducted by Capt. Harold Compton of the Green Bay Police Department.

Hallucinating Drugs

Session Two will cover "The Effects of Hallucinating Drugs," with Deputy Lt. Stanley Davenport, Madison Police Department.

The third and fourth sessions, each three hours in length, will cover interviewing and interrogation and will be taught by William H. Sadusky, New Berlin Police.

Union Lobby To Push for Agency Shop

Municipal Employees Group Wins Support Of UW Mediator

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
MADISON — The municipal workers union lobby will make a determined push for its "agency shop" bill in the fall session of the Legislature starting Oct. 17, headquarters of the state council of local employe unions has assured union officers and members in a publication currently being distributed.

The measure is one of the most controversial of the labor-sponsored bills the Legislature has considered lately, but John A. Lawton, legislative counsel for the Municipal Employee Union Federation, believes that the endorsement of the plan by Prof. Nathan Feinsinger, the University of Wisconsin labor mediator, will be of significant assistance.

Conclusions not Endorsed
The union organ noted with some disappointment that although Feinsinger had been named by Gov. Knowles to make a study of municipal labor problems, the executive office has declined to endorse his conclusions.

The Feinsinger report described the union's objectives as a "fair share agreement," but the issue is the same as that involved in earlier bills sponsored under the label of "agency shop." They would require, when approved by a two-thirds vote of municipal employees in a bargaining unit, all members of such an employment group to contribute to the union, without regard to their desire to become dues-paying and voting members of such an organization.

Measure Vetoed
The municipal unions succeeded after some difficulty in putting the measure through the Legislature two years ago, but it fell under a veto of Gov. Knowles, who objected that it violated long-standing Wisconsin traditions and principles in public employment.

This year, in spite of strenuous efforts during six months of the spring session of the Legislature, the sponsors were unable to bring the measure to the floor for a vote.

Other proposals of the Feinsinger report which the union group has adopted as its own would provide:

That the public employer be required to bargain in good faith, that agreements be reduced to a written document, that contracts may run up to three years instead of the one-year rule now prevailing, that supervisory employees would be permitted to join the union but with limited union activities rights

PSC Awards Kimberly-Clark Track Clearance

MADISON — The state Public Service Commission (PSC) has granted exemptions from clearance requirements over the Chicago and North Western Railway Company tracks in building 87 of the Kimberly-Clark Corporation operations at Kimberly.

The corporation had requested exemption for the construction of a trolley beam over one track to facilitate the loading and unloading of heavy equipment. Because of roof height and the size of the crane required it is not feasible to install rails and rail beams for the trolley with clearance in excess of 18 feet 6 inches. State statutes require a 22-foot clearance.

PSC exemption was granted on the basis that lowering of clearance would not endanger life and with the stipulation that low clearance signs be erected.

Henry Bailey, president of Tuttle Press, is co-chairman with C. Andree Pertain, vice president and treasurer of the Appleton Wire Works, of the large firms division of the 1967-68 Appleton United Givers Campaign. In Friday's Post-Crescent, announcing the appointment of Bailey, his name appeared under a picture of Roy Winter, who is chairman of the construction division.

Flag Football Gets to be a rough and tumble sport the way it's played at Rawhide by boys, who have had a history of trouble with the law, during a recent

Balanced Life Concept

'Loners' Team Up at Rawhide

NEW LONDON — Boys who normally would be considered "loners" became members of a close-knit group at Rawhide the past two weeks as they started to attain a common goal.

Although bright colored penants were the only tangible evidence of reward, the joint competition of outposts (campsites) as a team had more significance.

The boys with a wide variety of backgrounds, became members of their outposts and worked together as a unit — as they must in society. Boys on parole, under welfare department supervision and from underprivileged homes made up the camp.

Enjoy Brief Stint
For most it was their first opportunity to attend a camp, and to a man they enjoyed their brief stint at Rawhide. Terms such as "great," "terrific" and "wonderful" expressed the feelings of the boys after spending four days in camp. A group of 40 boys had visited the camp a week earlier.

Rawhide is not a camp for the faint at heart. Success is placed on roughing it and this seems to be what appeals most to the campers.

The four outposts are scattered about the spacious 714 acre grounds. Ten campers and two adult counselors comprise each outpost.

Daily Competition
Organized competition is held each day with one outpost pitted against another. Activities usually center on the rough and tumble and require a good deal of physical exertion.

Such things as fire fighting, softball, boat racing, heavy equipment operation, horsemanship, trap shooting, football and Hungarian softball are included in competition.

A group of boys on probation from Racine lived with David Rich, their probation officer, during the final week. A rapport was reached between them and during competition the boys urged on their officer. Following the boat race event the lanky red-haired counselor received some counseling for not doing better.

Pleased With Programs
Herb Friederich (better known among the campers as the "mayor") was camp director. Friederich said he was pleased with the way the two one-week camp programs had gone. The Toledo, Ohio, resident said there was an excel-lented attitude among the campers. The camp sessions were sponsored by the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Officers Association. (Post-Crescent Photo)

"I believe the boys come to a closeness with Jesus Christ," Rich said. "They are made aware of moral values and the importance of having goals."

Cost Financing
Nineteen of the boys attending the camp during the second week were directly sponsored by the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Officers Association. Six others had their way paid by the WLEO.

Cost of attending the camp is paid by churches, welfare agencies and in some cases private individuals. John Gillespie, Rawhide director, said. Attending this summer were boys from the following counties: Outagamie, 20 (16 from Appleton); Winnebago, 7; Shawano, 1; Menominee, 1; Waupaca, 1; Forest, 5; Dane, 3; Buffalo, 4; Manitowoc, 1; Sauk, 2; Jefferson, 1; Polk, 1; Racine, 18; Walworth, 1; Marinette, 1, and Marquette, 1.

'Balanced Life'
"The program with the balanced life concept is unequalled," he added.

The balanced life philosophy is for social, mental, physical and spiritual awareness. Rich and the other counselors are the main spokes in the "balanced life" wheel, as they must gain the confidence of their campers.

Rich said, "The boys work together and nobody is on his own. If there is any need for discipline the campers handle it in their own way."

Four-Mile Back-Up

Holiday Travelers Jam U.S. 41 Bridge

OSHKOSH — Relentless Labor Day weekend traffic came on the southbound lane and on Friday afternoon and near Neenah An Appleton infant evening and packed itself into a was killed. There were no four-mile jam at the bottleneck accidents in the bridge area bridge across Lake Butte des Morts.

The long back-up existed for two hours, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the northbound lanes of U. S. 41, together at the bridge. The back-up built until 8 p.m. then gradually began to ease. By 9:30 p.m., police said, traffic was moving smoothly across the bridge again.

Still Heavy Today
Northbound traffic on U. S. 41 was still heavy this morning and was expected to remain so until about 1:30 p.m.

Guardsmen Assist
It was taking between 45 minutes and one hour for a car to move that distance as vehicles from the left-hand northbound lane had to merge with the right-hand lane at the State 21 interchange.

National Guardsmen helped Winnebago County and State Police direct the flow of traffic through the two-lane funnel. There was only one accident in weekend.

"Fine Idea"
James Coleman, deputy relief director of the Appleton Welfare Department, said, "I think it's a fine idea. My personal observation is that I would definitely like to see it continued."

Seventh district chairman for the camp sponsorship was Jack Algiers, New London Police Chief.

Gillespie said a two-week period for second year campers was being planned for next year. The campers will be back providing they stay "pretty much out of any trouble," he added.

Proper Example
"We are trying to teach living through a proper example," the director added. "Learning to respect the rights of others is an important part of our program. Roughing it and having fun without destroying property, losing tempers or injuring someone is the key."

Gillespie said the only surprise to him during the initial season was that none of the campers came holding any animosity toward the camp. He had expected that a few barriers would have to be broken down.

Employment Gains In Fox Cities Area

$1,200 Taken In Break-in At Dag-Mars

Drive-in Entered Through Window, Drawer Jimmied

Approximately $1,200 in cash was taken during a break-in at a northside Appleton drive-in early today.

Appleton detectives reported this morning that the money in small denominations, was taken from the locked top drawer of a file cabinet at Dag-Mars Drive-In, Inc., 1309 E. Wisconsin Ave. The file cabinet appeared to have been jimmied.

Authorities speculate the theft took place between 1.15 a.m. when the store was closed, and 3 a.m., when a patrolman on his beat found that a window screen about seven feet off the ground on the south side of the building had been cut.

He summoned detectives, who discovered the theft.

Entry apparently was gained through the back window, although the door and three other windows had pry marks.

The cash drawer, containing receipts, apparently was the only thing touched.

Investigation is continuing.

Paper Industries Set Pace, But Departure of Collegians Expected to Slash Level

Employment in the Appleton-Neenah-Menasha area has jumped by almost 1,400 workers in 60 days.

Employment gains greater than predicted two months ago has brought employment totals to 33,530 at mid-July.

According to the August manpower report of the Wisconsin State Employment Service (WSES), the increase is due largely to hiring of recent school graduates and summer workers.

However the reports states that the employment level reached during the past two-month period is not expected to be maintained through mid-September.

Drop in Hiring Foreseen
Although no significant layoffs are expected, and a generally strong labor demand is indicated, WSES reports it does not appear probable that employers will be able to find replacements to cover losses of summer employed help returning to school which will result in a drop in hiring.

Major gains in the two-month period were in the non-durable industries.

That group is represented by 48 firms in the Appleton-Neenah-Menasha area and accounted for 73 per cent of the employment.

The advance was strongly dominated by paper and allied

Jaycees Want Mall At Soldiers Square

Offer $1,000 for Fountain Memorial to War Dead

A spokesman for the Appleton Jaycees has urged Mayor George Buckley and the city council to take "a positive stand" on developing Soldiers Square into a pedestrian walk area.

Harold Wolfram wrote city officials Friday and announced the Jaycees intend to donate $1,000 of their earnings from the College Avenue civic celebration projects toward construction of a decorative fountain.

Plans prepared for the pedestrian mall between Morrison and Oneida Streets, call for two fountains and some landscaping to tie in with the Avenue beautification theme.

Serviceman Memorial
About a year ago the Jaycees notified city officials they wanted to pay tribute to all servicemen killed in the service of their country and felt the fountain would make an excellent memorial.

Wolfram recalled that at the time the Soldiers Square parking ramp was under construction and it was decided to put off the pedestrian walk project until the parking structure was completed.

Wolfram said the Jaycees would budget the $1,000 for the memorial, providing store owners in the block of College Avenue that abuts Soldiers Square follow through with the mall plans.

"We as Jaycees hope the city and merchants will take a positive stand on this, since the area is so ideal," Wolfram said.

At the same time, the Jaycee spokesman said he didn't think the removal of 26 meters now in the square would mean much because the 450-car parking ramp was close by.

"Needless to say, our contribution on this (the Soldiers Square project) is only a token of what it will cost store owners," Wolfram said. "However, they would have to agree it would add much more to an otherwise old and dreary sight."

He said should the mall be constructed and the Jaycees be given approval for their fountain project, arrangements would be made to allocate more funds if needed.

Wolfram said a short time ago the Jaycees donated $1,000 toward the College Avenue beautification. "This was done in part for the merchants as a token of our appreciation for sponsoring many of our projects, and as a gesture towards the City of Appleton," he said.

He pledged continued cooperation of the Jaycees to "help on any worthwhile community project."

Court Dismisses Charges Against Appleton Youth

Two traffic charges against an Appleton youth were dismissed Friday afternoon in Outagamie County Court Branch 2.

Joseph A. Van Ooyen, 19, 309 E. Spring St., had been charged by Appleton police with leaving the scene of an accident and driving after his license was revoked. Police alleged the offenses occurred in the 1000 block of W. Prospect Avenue the night of July 1. Van Ooyen had pleaded innocent.

The dismissals were asked because there reportedly was no positive identification as to the driver of the car involved in the accident. Judge Gustave J. Keller ordered that Van Ooyen's $200 bond be returned.

Boy Hurt in Car-Bike Crash

Mark Scheidegger, 6, 227 E. McKinley St., was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by Lindy's Ambulance suffering from bruises and abrasions about 4 p.m. Friday after the bicycle he was riding was involved in a collision with a car.

Police said the boy was traveling north on S. Madison Street when the bicycle collided with an auto driven by Mrs. John Craford, 3507 Justin Drive, which was heading west on E. Lincoln Street.

Recreation Department Organizes Chess Club

A Chess Club, for beginners and experienced players, is being organized by the Appleton Recreation Department.

The group will meet at 7 p.m. Wednesdays, at Jefferson School for three-hour sessions, starting Sept. 13.

firms but also aided by employment in the printing and publishing, food and textile manufacturing industries.

Modest Increase Shown
Only a modest increase of 185 workers was shown in hiring in durable goods manufacturing which is represented by 30 area firms. The primary metal industry accounted for most of the gain. Hiring in contract construction, transportation and public utilities, finance and services, although somewhat under expectations, adequately offset losses shown by government, retail and wholesale trades.

The WSES report also shows a 60 per cent increase in job applicants over that of two months ago, but no significant change from the total for the same period one year ago.

Count Reflects Youth
As usual, the mid-July count reflects the impact of large numbers of youth and summer workers who are expected to be removed from the rolls by mid-September.

In the last two-month period, 71 per cent of the applicants were under 22 years of age. The 22 to 44-year bracket accounted for 20 per cent and the 45 to 64 class, 7 per cent.

Women applicants totaled 49 from May figures and 21 per cent from 1966, constituting an easing of the worker demand. Manufacturing operations accounted for the major portion of unfilled positions at 40 per cent.

Sales and service jobs represented 22 per cent of the demand.

Wolfram said the Jaycees would budget the $1,000 for the memorial, providing store owners in the block of College Avenue that abuts Soldiers Square follow through with the mall plans.

"We as Jaycees hope the city and merchants will take a positive stand on this, since the area is so ideal," Wolfram said.

He pledged continued cooperation of the Jaycees to "help on any worthwhile community project."

Laux Estate Valued at $109,440

Six Heirs Named In Will of Fuel Firm Founder

John P. Laux, founder of the Laux Fuel and Supply Co. of Appleton, left an estate with a gross value of $109,440, according to final judgement of a will probated in Outagamie County Court.

Laux, who died at the age of 90, lived in Appleton most of his life, and at the time of death resided at 521 N. Meade St. He died Dec. 25, 1965.

Requests ranging from $16,979 to $21,261 went to three sons, Gordon Laux, 1740 N. Appleton St., John, route 3, and Richard, 2928 N. Meade St., and two daughters, Mrs. Bonita Rusch, Milwaukee, and Mrs. Juliana Verhoeven, 1521 E. Pershing St., Appleton.

Mrs. Ester Laux, 1619 E. Pershing St., a daughter-in-law was named to receive $1,500.

County Court Grants Divorce

Dr. Marvin Kagen, 49, 505 E. Grant St., Thursday was divorced by Virginia Kagen, 44, on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

The couple was married July 6, 1946, and had three children, two of them minors. Kagen was awarded custody of the minor children. Mrs. Kagen now lives in Chicago.

A property settlement was stipulated, in lieu of alimony. The action was heard in Outagamie County Court Branch 1.

Appleton Woman Hurt In Accident After Dog Bumps Driver

Mrs. Charles Bassett, 1818 W. Pine St., complained of neck and head pains after the car she was driving was involved in a two-car accident about 4 p.m. Friday.

Appleton police said she had stopped her car at a stop sign at W. Lawrence Street while going south on S. State Street when her vehicle was struck from behind by an auto driven by Mrs. Reid Johnson, 1925 S. Bouten St.

Mrs. Johnson told police a dog in the car had bumped against her, causing her to release the brake and strike the Bassett vehicle.

Woman Injures Ankle In Fall From Ladder

Mrs. Ida Heller, 415 E. Summer St., was taken to Appleton Memorial Hospital with a possible broken right ankle after she fell from a ladder about 3 p.m. Friday.

The woman was haid way up an eight-foot ladder in the garage at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Burmester, 1010 S. Kenan Ave. when she fell.

Appleton police said the ladder tipped.

Sherwood Man Reported in Good Condition

Injured in Crash With Semi-Trailer Thursday Morning

CHILTON — A 23-year-old Sherwood man just recently returned from Vietnam, is reported in good condition today at Columet Memorial Hospital following a car-truck collision about 3:20 p.m. Thursday in the Town of Harrison.

Eugene Funk, 23, suffered a broken nose and pelvis, dislocated hip and numerous cuts and abrasions when his car failed to negotiate a curve and sideswiped a semi-trailer truck driven by Arlen Boyle, 41, route 1, Menasha, on State 114 2 miles south of Sherwood. Boyle was uninjured.

Columbia County Sheriff's authorities said Funk was pinned in his car for some time after the accident. The auto was demolished.

The collision tore open the truck's diesel tanks and knocked out its tandems. Diesel fuel spilled over the highway but did not ignite.

Boyle was eastbound on 114, heading for Milwaukee with a load of beer bottles. Sheriff's authorities said The Funk car was westbound.

Shotgun Blast Didn't Kill Cow

Outagamie County Sheriff's investigators said this morning that a cow found dead early Wednesday morning on the Roger Paul farm, route 2, New London had not been shot as was previously reported by authorities.

Lt. Jack Zuelzke said he had ordered the cow taken to a rendering plant for examination. He said he was told the cow had a small abdomen wound but that the wound had not punctured the hide.

Injury could have been caused by the Holstein cow bumping against a sharp object. Zuelzke was told The cow, which Paul valued at $400, was found dead when Paul returned from a school meeting early Wednesday. He had reported that the animal had been killed by a shotgun blast.

K mart to Open In September

K mart Department Store, 2400 W. College Ave., has announced its opening date has been moved ahead to Sept. 14.

Organization of the firm's sales staff progressed faster than anticipated making it possible to open sooner, Dennis R. Dorn, store manager, said in making the announcement.

Holstein Cow Hit By Auto, Is Killed

A Holstein cow owned by Ray A. Paul, route 2, New London, was killed when it was struck by a car about 9 p.m. Thursday on State 70, 5 miles northwest of Shioctor.

Outagamie County police said that Dennis D. Young, 19, route 1, Bear Creek, was westbound on 76 when the cow jumped in front of the car. The front of the Young car was damaged.

Omro Man Pleads Guilty of Three Morals Charges

WAUPACA — Joel Grossman, 22, 336 E. Main St., Omro, pleaded guilty to charges of lewd and lascivious conduct, enticing a child for immoral purposes and possession of obscene pictures Friday when he was arraigned in Waupaca County Court and was sent to Central State Hospital, Waupun for an indefinite term.

Grossman was arrested in Fremont June 25 and was sent to Central State Hospital June 30 for a mental examination. He was returned to court Friday and waived a preliminary hearing before entering a guilty plea to the charges. He was represented by Waupaca Attorney Edward Hart.

Sheriff's department officials arrested Grossman after complaints were received from the parents of children from Appleton and Ohio about his conduct.

Dear Heloise:

I have a new motto. It is, "Look before you spray." I decided to do this after I sprayed my little girl's hair with spray starch instead of the hair spray that was sitting near it.

Heloise

I told a neighbor what I'd done, and she said she had sprayed her warm over with furniture wax! Then had to use three different oven cleaners to get it off!

Hazel, I agree with you 200 per cent.

Manufacturers go to great lengths putting directions and cautions on their products. Yet, when we don't follow them we get mad when the stuff doesn't work, or we are injured in Vietnam with the 1st Cavalry Division since June 10.

His parents were informed of his death Tuesday. He had been listed as missing about a week earlier.

cookies bakes. I wash the dishes I used.

It takes me such a short time to bake my cookies using this system. Moreover, there are no cookie sheets to wash. Just let them cool and return them to the cabinet. The kitchen is clean.

The foil can be saved for your next cooking urge. Really nothing wasted.

Mother of Four

After making a dress with a new pattern, I save a scrap of the material and pin it to the pattern before putting it away.

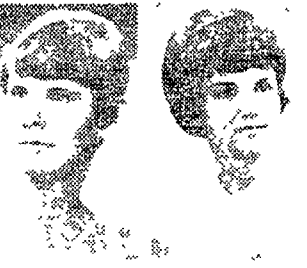

Then when selecting a pattern later, I can recall by that scrap of material if I liked the dress well enough to use the same pattern again.

Timid Lead Will Ruin Defense

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Montreal won the Congress Playing Card Trophy a few weeks ago in a match against a team of leading Chicago experts, much to the surprise and discomfiture of the Chicagoans. It and arm and pains in her neck shouldn't have been a great surprise since many of the best North American experts live in Montreal.

It isn't easy (and it isn't usually wise) to get to a game contract with four trumps in your own hand and only three in the dummy. Sam Gold and Ralph Cohen found themselves pushed into game during the Montreal-Chicago match, and Gold made the game when the defense slipped.

If West had started out with three rounds of spades, forcing dummy to ruff, South would have had a more difficult task. The actual club lead simplified matters for Gold.

Gold took three rounds of clubs, discarding a spade from his hand with the ace of the dummy, and then led his last and tenth tricks with the queen club. West put in the nine of hearts, forcing dummy to over-ruff with the ace. This play, combined with East's double of the next player passes. You will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mondays through Fridays. Gold's mind about the location Q: C-9863. What do you say? and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays of the jack of trumps.

Deep Finesse
When declarer next led a spade from dummy, East hopped up with the king of spades, maximum strength for this response. The hand is not quite worth any stronger response.

Minor Injuries

Suffered in Crash On N. Richmond

Minor injuries were suffered when cars driven by Appleton and rural New London motorists collided about 7:15 p.m. Friday at the intersection of W. Summer and N. Richmond Streets.

Mrs. Frieda Reitz, 527 N. Meade St., was taken to Appleton Memorial Hospital with bumps to her head, left hand and arm and pains in her neck after the car in which she was riding collided with an auto driven by Lawrence E. Ruckdashed, 52, route 2, New London.

Mrs. Reitz was a passenger in a car driven by Miss Evelyn Reitz, 527 N. Meade, who took her to the hospital.

Ruckdashed told Appleton police he had stopped for a stop sign on Summer, began to cross Richmond but did not see the Reitz vehicle until he could not avoid hitting it.

WMPC Leased Land on Tax Roll

Property owned by the Wisconsin-Michigan Power Co. and now leased to Miller Electric Co. was added to the Appleton tax rolls today in the amount of $12,175.

The board of review took the action after receiving a report from City Assessor John Pierre.

The property is on Bounds Street on the southwest side of the city. The assessment will amount to an estimated $700 to $800 tax income to the city.

the seven of trumps, winning the trick.

Declarer then ruffed a spade with dummy's last trump, got to his hand with the ace of diamonds and tested the trumps with the king. West showed out, and it was clear that East still had two trumps. Gold therefore got out by leading a diamond, after which he could wait for the opponents to give him his ninth trump, and then led his last and tenth tricks with the queen club. West put in the nine of hearts, forcing dummy to over-ruff with the ace. This play, combined with East's double of the next player passes. # 'Schut' Set Sunday at Hollandtown HOLLANDTOWN—The 118th annual Hollandtown "Schut" will get underway at 2 p.m. Sunday at the schut grounds with Carl Bowers, last year's king, to fire the first shot.

Shooters from throughout the area are permitted to participate in the event which formally was limited to members of the St. Francis Society of the Catholic parish here.

A bird made of wood, leather belting and metal is placed atop a high pole and each shooter in turn fires at the bird. Prize money totaling $100 is divided among those claiming the head, wings or tail of the bird.

The person topping the last remaining portion of the bird is declared the king and reigns over a banquet at Van Abel's following the schut.
